09/09/2013 8:22 AM			Esther Song	On 9/6, Karl was told he would no longer be captain of speech and debate by Mr. Murphy. On the way out of school, Karl was very angry and was cursing and having an emotional outburst outside the bubble. He was also overheard by another staff member saying "I'm going to kill that guy". Conducted threat assessment/re-entry meeting with Kevin Kolasa, Karl and parents to determine level of threat and ability to return to school. Student remorseful about reaction but admits to still being angry. No understanding of impact of threat on staff member it was directed to. Mr. Kolasa, parents, Mr. Murphy and student will meet in 2 weeks to discuss plan of action with speech and debate.

At the end of my conversation with him today (after he told a kid to "just go gut himself") he shared that he has always been someone's "bitch" and that other kids were and are mean to him. Therefore he feels he is justified in doing that to other kids too. "Why wouldn't I make him my bitch after that has been done to me?" was the question he asked me. We briefly discussed different ways to handle this anger and these feelings, but I feel this needs to be shared with you. Thanks and let me know how I can help. Jackie ----- Karl was extremely angry during our meeting. He didn't understand why he can get picked on all the time and the one time he picks on someone he is the one to get in trouble. He felt that it didn't matter if he told me about people that are harassing him, because we aren't going to do anything about it. It would be pointless to tell anyone about the harassment he is experiencing. Though he eventually did tell me people that know him, but aren't considered friends, pick on him, laugh at him, call him names and say that he is gay. Karl stated that he has decided to make the emo kids his
